Mining Operations in the Camp of Pioche
---	--

Mining operations at the Prince Consolidated are running along like clockwork, according to the manager, C. Godbe, and W. H. Pitt, merchant and mining man, who came up from Pioche yesterday. The new double compartment working shaft from the sixth level is now down 100 feet. A station is being cut and a crosscut will be sent out for the ore. The shaft will be carried down 250 feet further.

FIVE-STAMP MILL

The five-stamp mill which was installed by W. J. Merrifield and associates at Haystack to work the ore from their lease was started Monday and is said to be giving good results. With the building of this mill there is renewed activity at Haystack and a number of properties are being operated.

At the Butler Theatre Tonight

SCENE FROM "IN MIZZOURA"

AMUSEMENTS

AIRDOME

Probably the greatest and most talked of events of recent date, outside the war, are the Johnson-Willard fight at Havana for the heavyweight championship of the world, and the sinking of the Cunard liner Lusitania by a German submarine. People of Tonopah will have an opportunity to see both of these at the Airdome on Thursday, June 10th. Prior to the Lusitania sailing on her fatal voyage, it was generally known that she was in great danger of being sent to the bottom before reaching England and "riding their hunch," a moving picture company got everything in detail, which will be shown Thursday. Together with both these big features are four reels of the Mutual program.

PASTIME THEATRE

Supported by a good cast in "Wildfire," at the Pastime today, Lillian Russell plays a picture role in one of her old Broadway successes, a rather youthful heroine—and, considering that Lillian is not as young as she used to be, it is really marvelous the way she gets away with it in a number of scenes. As Lillian Barrington, she appears in a number of frocks, and in the back of a watch worn by the heroine's father is a photograph of her when at the zenith of her beauty. She doesn't appear more than 27 when she comes out to the tennis courts and starts a game. Lillian's secret of retaining her youth and beauty is all her own. Supporting her is Lionel Barrymore, a favorite film artist.

Tomorrow a Mutual master picture, "Captain Macklin." The public is cordially invited to attend the matinee as guests of the Pastime.

Thursday another great Mutual master picture, "Rumpelstiltskin," a fairy story that appeals to young and old alike.—Adv.

BUTLER THEATRE

Two vaudeville acts, a five-reel feature and musical selections by the orchestra will be the bill at the Butler tonight. Lezette & Hodges will entertain you with the latest songs—Gloria Mayne in her farewell appearance will sing "The Kiss Waltz" in Italian, and the picture program will consist of a five-reel feature, "In Mizoura." Augustus Thomas' great and thrilling story of true Missouri small town life, which as a theatrical attraction enjoyed several seasons of marked success the country over. Burr McIntosh, the world famed war correspondent, lecturer, author, actor and publisher of the artistic Burr McIntosh magazine, playing the leading role of Joe Vernon, in the village blacksmith, "In Mizoura" has elicited a wondrous praise from motion picture critics, and has enjoyed an exceptional success in New York City. Mr. McIntosh, who after an absence of several years from the stage, makes his initial appearance before the motion picture camera in the role of Joe Vernon, a part which he created in the original production several years ago.

Tomorrow, "The Second Commandment," a three-reel drama. Saturday, a sensational feature, Art Smith, the Human Comet, Looping the Loop at Midnight. Defying Death.—Adv.
